

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1989 - SB 2073

April 2, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Establishes the Emergency Care for Rape Victims Act of 2007 which creates a standard of care for hospitals that provide emergency care for rape victims requiring facilities to provide each rape victim with medically and factually accurate and objective written and oral information about emergency contraception and orally inform each victim about a pharmacy or other provider that dispenses emergency contraception.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - $7,200 One-Time

Assumption:

- The Department of Health will incur an increase in state expenditures estimated to be $7,200 for the development and printing of materials for the 129 emergency rooms across the state to provide to rape victims.
